

IFFLEY CHURCH HALL

DATA PRIVACY NOTICE

1. Your personal data – what is it?

Personal data relates to a living individual who can be identified from that data. Identification can be by the information alone or in conjunction with any other information in the data controller's possession or likely to come into such possession. The processing of personal data is governed by the General Data Protection Regulation (the GDPR).

2. Who are we?

The PCC of St Mary's, Iffley is the body legally responsible for Iffley Church Hall (the Hall) and is the data controller (contact details below). This means it decides how your personal data is processed and for what purposes.

3. How do we process your personal data?

The PCC of St Mary's, Iffley complies with its obligations under the GDPR by keeping personal data up to date; by storing and destroying it securely; by not collecting or retaining excessive amounts of data; by protecting personal data from loss, misuse, unauthorised access and disclosure and by ensuring that appropriate technical measures are in place to protect personal data.

4. What is the legal basis for processing your personal data?

We collect and process your personal data for the sole purpose of entering into and performing a contract with you for the hire of the Hall.

5. Sharing your personal data

Your personal data will be treated as strictly confidential and will only be shared with those persons who reasonably need to know the information in order to enter into and perform the contract for the hire of the Hall.

6. How long do we keep your personal data?

We keep your personal data for as long as is reasonably necessary in connection with your contract for the hire of the Hall. Other than for regular repeat hirers of the Hall, we will keep your data for no longer than one year from the date you used the Hall under the contract.

7. Your rights and your personal data

Unless subject to an exemption under the GDPR, you have the following rights with respect to your personal data:

- The right to request a copy of your personal data held by the PCC of St Mary's Iffley.
- The right to request that the PCC of St Mary's Iffley corrects any personal data if it is inaccurate or out of date.
- The right to request your personal data is erased if the PCC of St Mary's Iffley no longer needs to retain it.
- The right to withdraw your consent to the processing at any time.
- The right, where there is a dispute in relation to the accuracy or processing of your personal data, to request a restriction is placed on further processing.
- The right to lodge a complaint with the Information Commissioners Office.

8. Further processing

If we wish to use your personal data for a new purpose, not covered by this Data Privacy Notice, then we will give you a new notice explaining this new use prior to commencing the processing and setting out the relevant purposes and processing conditions. Where and whenever necessary, we will seek your prior consent to the new processing.

9. Contact Details

To exercise all relevant rights, queries or complaints please in the first instance contact the Hall Bookings Secretary at hall@iffleychurch.org.uk, or, if unavailable, contact the Parish Secretary at office@iffleychurch.org.uk.
